Gadefrehniii LLC, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .He is respected in his community. He is a man of faith. He never had a DUI, spent a night in jail, lost a job due to his drinking, and he was never admitted to a rehab facility. He had never been told by friend or foe that he was an alcoholic; and he never purposely hurt anyone while drinking.or so he thought. This is the memoir of a college-educated business person who made significant income and owned many material things. The author has no delusion that what he has written here will save anyone from the throes of this insidious disease. He does believe, however, that he has the responsibility to tell his story so that someone who needs help can discover that there is life after alcohol and hopefully will not only imagine but live a life to its fullest without booze. Author: George DeFrehn...
