Samuels Advice

By Daniel J. Smerillo

Xulon Press. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 194 pages. Dimensions: 8.5in. x 5.5in. x 0.5in. Imagine the worst that could happen - the atomic wars in the 21st Century. 200 years after the wars, a Grandfather gives advice to his grandson on the Christian ideals and formulas that allowed a group of Christians and Jews to survive. He also gives the early warnings for the atomic wars, which were sent out by the ancestral grandfather before the start of the wars. The warnings are for any parent who is concerned about the interaction of Judeo-Christian beliefs and secular politics. The warnings are about the waning of Judeo-Christian beliefs and the rise of secular humanism and moral relativism, which lead to the potential for nuclear war between the Muslim nations and western nations. The book gives hope that with Christian beliefs and practices, the true Christian believers will be saved. This book contains the writings of an elderly man living in Cincinnati, Ohio. He was born in 1945, at the end of WWII. He graduated from University of Dayton with Bachelor of Arts degree in Sociology, and study in philosophy, theology and psychology. He had failures in marriage, which sent him searching...
