J D Radburn, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Phillos is the last Librarian - a globular race of humanoids charged with managing the Great Library. In fact, he s the last anything ever, or so he believes. One day, he hears footsteps. The spectre responsible leads him to nine tattered books, hidden away in the Great Library s oldest recesses; Phillos makes the mistake of reading them. ----- Short Universe details a series of misadventures across all of time and space. On our own little planet the misfortunes are uncountable, the depravity of our seediest neighbours without fathom, so it shouldn t surprise you to learn that circumstances seldom improve further afield. If anything, they get worse. Thankfully for mortals, our lives are short, and our sufferings against war, corruption, madness, and hell fit snugly within these pages. You don t need warning because you already know, not all of these stories end well. Instead, take comfort in knowing that legacies are built in the fight against monsters and in the end those lives might not be so short after all. ----- Short Story Synopses The Great Library: Part 1 Phillos is the last living being in the entire universe, or should be. One day, he hears footsteps. After following the spectre responsible, he comes across nine tattered books within the Great Library under his charge. He makes the mistake of reading them. Stupid Rancid gangsters, giant space beasts, and the embrace of space without a suit - these are some of kindest parts of Samson s day, which only gets worse when he stumbles upon a scuttling presence in the darkness of a Gov research facility. The Bullet Boy A ghost, who Dandy dubs The Bullet Boy, arrives at the...
