

Stories of Our Soldiers: War Reminiscences (Classic Reprint)

By Charles Carleton Coffin

Forgotten Books. Paperback. Condition: New. 270 pages. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 6.0in. x 0.6in. Excerpt from Stories of Our Soldiers: War Reminiscences On the 19th of November, 1892, the Boston Journal began a series of war reminiscences by Carleton, the well-known war correspondent of the paper in the days of the Rebellion, and by the veteran soldiers of New England themselves. The desire of the paper has been to preserve those stories of individual heroism and adventure which have never been compiled for the formal histories, and to give to the generation grown up since the war a better idea of the personal sacrifices and brave deeds of our boys in blue than they could obtain from that war books, which deal so largely with general events and with general officers. The name which the Journal has always held as a staunch friend of the soldiers led at once to the expectation of a camp fire gathering which should be unique in size and interesting in character, and the expectation has been more than realized. Not only have hundreds of New England veterans, privates, captains, colonels and generals contributed their stories of experiences to swell the history, but the popular voice of appreciation...
