O. , 2006. LC Number: KF27 . B5368 2005g OCLC Number: (OCoLC)74654316 Subject: United States -- Foreign economic relations -- European Union countries. Excerpt: . . . 9 political framework and new approaches to regulatory cooperation to deepen the very broad and deep transatlantic trade and investment relationship we have, while also promoting innovation, competitiveness, and job creation. So let me just focus on two of these key points. The first is that we really need to harness the power of the U. S. - EU annual summits. At some times in our history, we have had meetings twice a year, we are now at a point where we have one Summit each year. And economics only made its way onto the agenda a year ago. Given the depth and breadth of our economic and investment relationship, it is imperative that the leaders place economic issues at the top of the agenda rather than as an after-thought. We also strongly encourage the Summit leaders to build on what they did last year in Ireland and make it mark the beginning, not the end, of a process to increase political engagement across the board for the Summit. We believe only with the leaders involvement, can we spur the economic and regulatory reforms in both markets and leverage the job creation and economic growth potential that still remain to be seen in our marketplace. And nothing less, we believe, will provide the impetus to do this than having a stronger political engagement from the leaders. Now, as for improving regulatory cooperation, we place this issue at...
