In the 18 years since leaving the consumer advocate office, Ive been primarily in private practice, with a short stint back at the Public Utilities Commission as a staff counsel to the commission, and been working both as attorney and an energy consultant. Ive testified or consulted in numerous jurisdictions including Colorado, New Mexico, Arizona, Texas, Washington, Hawaii, Oregon, Nevada, and California, and on various energy issues including integrated resource planning, energy efficiency demand response, natural gas decoupling, and others. I have represented numerous clients in energy related matters, including utility rate proceedings, integrated resource planning cases, legislative proceedings, and power contract negotiations. My clients included the Department of Energy, the Department of Defense, the Department of the Navy, Sandia National Labs, major international corporations, utilities, manufacturers of energy efficiency equipment, and renewable resource developers. I also, like Mr. Moeller, experienced firsthand the challenges of electric market restructuring in representing clients after the after-math of the electric market failures in the West during the 1999 to 2002 time frame. The FERC is an important independent regu-latory agency with an essential mission. The Congress has placed even greater responsibility on the agency with the enhancement to FERCs powers in EPAct 2005. Resource adequacy, electric system reliability, demand response and transmission planning are all integral to the integrated re-source planning process that I helped initiate in Nevada in the early 1980 s, and in numerous other...
