These kinds of book is every thing and helped me hunting forward plus more. It is probably the most remarkable book we have read through. It is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding, once you begin to read the book.

RAISING BLACK KIDS TO BE O.K.

Dog Ear Publishing, United States, 2013. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 226 x 150 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .After raising eight children and with decades of psychology experience, Dr. Robert Williams is uniquely qualified to provide this much-needed book on how to raise black children properly from a black perspective. In Raising Black Kids to be O.K., parents will learn how to develop a black identity, deal with racial profiling and questions about biracial children, build character traits such as honesty and responsibility, and instill compassion and patience. One African-American parent s perspective highlights the reason a book on raising black kids properly is needed: A lot of black parents aren t doing their job. They are too young or immature to be parents in the first place. Some of them are drinking, and/or using drugs and some of them do not understand what they re supposed to be doing to raise productive, successful children. Perhaps they, themselves, have no clear examples of good parenting. Most parents, at some point or another, find themselves at their wits end on how to handle a problem with their child. Raising Black Kids to be O.K. shows parents through proverbs, real examples and fables how to cope with these problems and help their child eventually become a mature, well-adjusted adult. The book teaches black parents to be consistent in parenting, such as by establishing a discipline plan for handling both simple and difficult family problems ranging from bossiness to disrespect and bullying. It also discusses common mistakes black parents make in raising their kids, provides guidelines for correcting them and offers examples of proper -- and improper -- child-rearing techniques. Dr. Robert Williams has spent 25 years as professor of psychology and black studies at two universities...
