Print on Demand .I wrote God Is not as a speculator or as a spectator. I wrote about my life and my experiences and present this book as a gift to you, just as the experiences I share with you were gifted to me. I believe in being of selfless service to my fellow Spiritual beings. I believe each and every religion, theology and Spiritual practice points its practitioners in that direction. As is heard very frequently in the rooms of Twelve Step fellowships you keep what you have by giving it away. Please allow me to expand on that by stating you enhance what you have by giving it away. I wrote God Is for a number of reasons. First is to introduce to you an all-powerful, all knowing, ever present, unconditionally loving, non-judging Divine Presence that wants nothing but and works for your greatest good to be made manifest in your life. Second is to let you know that no matter how dysfunctional life starts out, no matter how self-destructive you are to yourself and/or abusive you are to others...
