The rates and other conditions provided in this decision shall, therefore, be put into effect in all the shipyards to which it applies for the pay period beginning on or immediately after Tuesday, October 1, 1918. V. Everit Macy, Chairman. Appointed by the President of the United States. L. C. Marshall, Appointed by the Navy Department and the Emergency Fleet Corporation. A. J. Berres, Appointed by the President of the American Federation of Labor. Washington, D. C, October 24, 1918. 1 In the Pacific coast award the decision is made to apply to California, Oregon, and Washington. 2 At this point the Pacific coast award contains the following section: SEC. XXV. Retroactive provision.--In order that shipyard employees on the Pacific coast may be fully compensated for the loss and inconvenience which they have suffered because of the unavoidable delay in the announcement of this decision, the wage rates fixed in Schedule A are made retroactive to August 1, 1918. Their attention is called to the fact that in strictness the basis for calculating their retroactive pay should be the increase from October, 1917, to August, 1918, rather than the greater increase from October, 1917, to October, 1918, as herein provided. The more liberal adjustment is made in recognition of the excellent production of Pacific coast shipyards, and...
