Excerpt: .to allow it to be printed here: THE AUTOBIOGRAPHY OF HENRY STANWOOD. Written for his Daughter Mrs. Bradley Martin Thomas of Kalamazoo. My Dear Daughter, There is nothing in my life that seems worthy of being put on record, except what God has done for and by me. All that I desire to hold in grateful remembrance while I live to record as a deserved testimony to his for his praise. And as there will be no one when I am gone from whom you can obtain the information you desire, I have decided in compliance with your wishes, to leave for your own eye, a brief record of such things concerning myself my relations as may seem calculated to interest you. I was born in Newburyport, Massachusetts, October 21, 1798. My parents were Joseph and Sarah Stanwood: our family circle embraced eight--five sons...
